J. L. McELHANY BACK FROM EUROPEAN JOURNEY

Pacific Union Conference President Tells About Economic Unrest

A decidedly hopeful picture of economic and political conditions in Europe is painted by Elder J. L. McElhany of 1412 East California avenue, president of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, who arrived home Sunday morning from a three months' trip abroad.

Elder McElhany left Glendale April 25, accompanied by Elder C. K. Myers, associate secretary of the general conference. They went abroad at the invitation of the head of the European conference to attend and address the foreign conferences. The Seventh-day Adventist denomination has many members throughout Europe and Mr. McElhany's travels and conferences gave him splendid opportunity to study economic conditions.

Germany Improves
He crossed the Atlantic on the Leviathan. He landed in England and after a few days there went to Stuttgart, Berlin and Hamburg, Germany. He returned later for another visit in Germany and from observations made while there he says conditions are somewhat improved, due undoubtedly to the stabilizing of currency.

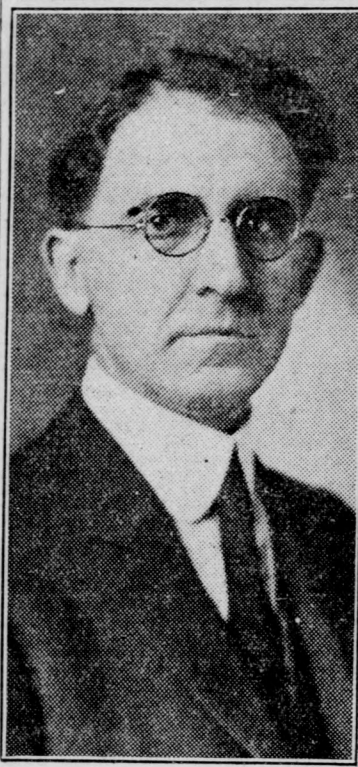

Continuing his journey from Germany Mr. McElhany went on through Sweden to Christiania, Norway, then back to Stockholm, Sweden. Later he crossed the Baltic to Finland, where he visited Abo and Helsinki. Crossing the Finland gulf he journeyed into Estonia, visiting Reval, the base of the old Russian naval fleet. He also went to Riga and Latvia.

Sees Much Unrest
Returning, he came by way of Berlin to Copenhagen, Denmark. Then around the Baltic through Berlin to Bern, Switzerland, and then to Milan and Rome, Italy. He came through Paris to London.

CONTROL TAHOE'S TIMBER FLAMES

All Other Fires In National Forests Subdued, Report Of U. S. Official

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The dangerous Forest Hill divide fire in Tahoe national forest was brought under control today after devastating more than 16,000 acres of valuable timberlands, it was announced here today by the United States forester's office.

Less than 200 men are being held at the scene of the conflagration to combat one or two minor areas of the blaze which are expected to be quenched early today. "We have a fire line around all of the danger spots and with the exception of one or two minor portions of the fire it is now definitely controlled," said a report received from Supervisor R. L. P. Bigelow.

All other blazes in national forests were reported to be controlled. Conditions were described today as being "better than for many weeks."

Transmutation Costs $2,000,000 Pound

BERLIN, July 21.—Professor Meitner, who claims to have developed a process of making gold from mercury, admitted today the cost was more than $2,000,000 a pound.

Prepare for Flyers' Arrival at Greenland

COPENHAGEN, July 21.—An American air service officer left today for Greenland to make preparations for the arrival of the American round-the-world flyers there early in August.

RIP TIDE VICTIM

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Search was being made here today for the body of Archie Roberts, 27, of Los Angeles, swept to his death in a rip tide.

Five Children Die As Fire Destroys House; Two Escape

GREENVILLE, Pa., July 21.—Five children of Fred Hedglin of North Sandy, five miles from here, all under twelve years of age, were burned to death early today when fire destroyed their home. Two other children escaped by jumping from a second story building.

The father was away and the mother was working in the garden. She vainly tried to rescue the children.

PROGRAM OF SYNOD IS OUTLINED

General Assembly Moderator To Deliver Address at Presbyterian Meet

Dr. Clarence Edward McCartney of Philadelphia, moderator of the general assembly of Presbyterian churches throughout the United States, will visit Glendale on his first tour since his election as moderator at Grand Rapids, Mich., and will deliver a sermon at the Glendale Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, as the feature address of the synod, which will start July 24 and run until July 31.

More than 1000 delegates from all parts of California, Arizona and Nevada are expected to attend the synod. The synod will be preceded by a pre-synod conference and field council at the church from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., on Thursday, as well as a meeting Thursday morning of the Federated Women's Aid society of the Los Angeles Presbytery.

Prominent Visitors

Dr. McCartney is but one of the many prominent churchmen from all parts of the United States who will attend the synod and will deliver addresses during the sessions. Many prominent churchmen will also have charge of classes in the conference program. The forty-fifth annual meeting of the Women's Synodical Society of Home Missions will be held in connection with the synod, the sessions being on Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. Dirk A. Lay, moderator of the synod of Arizona, and Dr. Layley A. McAfee of Berkeley, moderator of the synod of California, will speak Thursday night at the joint sessions of the two synods. Dr. Robert E. Speer of New York City, secretary of the board of foreign missions, will have charge of the Bible study period Friday morning, and will deliver an address later the same morning, in which he will give the report of the committee on foreign missions.

Occidental Guests

Rev. John Timothy Stone, noted clergyman of Chicago, will have charge of the vespers Friday night at the Central Christian church. Rev. Frederick J. Hart of New York City, chairman of the committee on foreign missions, and Rev. Frazier S. Herndon of Philadelphia, chairman of the committee on ministerial relief and sustentation, will give reports Saturday.

On Saturday the delegates will be the guests of President Remsen D. Bird, of Occidental college, at luncheon, which will be served at the college. Following the luncheon there will be a baseball game on the college campus between the ministers and the young people.

Men's Banquet

Rev. H. M. Campbell of San Jose, secretary for men's work in California, will be in charge of the men's banquet at the church Saturday night, starting at 6:30 o'clock. Addresses will be given at

FIST FIGHT FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

Champion Cut and Bruised And Three Others Also Victims of Wreck

BULLETIN
LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Jack Dempsey, world champion heavy-weight boxer, brought here following an automobile accident near San Juan Capistrano, is more seriously injured than first reports indicated. He is suffering from a dislocation of the right elbow, a deep gash below the knee on the right leg, a severe scalp cut, strained ligaments in the neck and back and cuts on the nose and face, according to his physician, Dr. Claire Wilson.

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight boxing champion, and three other persons were severely injured last night when Dempsey's automobile, driven by his chauffeur, skidded from the road two miles north of San Juan Capistrano, and turned over, it was learned today.

Others injured besides Dempsey in the accident, which occurred while the champion and a company of motion picture actors were en route to Pine Hills for "location" on a new production in which the heavyweight king is to be the star, were:

Teddy Hayes, Dempsey's trainer; Mrs. Teddy Hayes, actress, known on the screen as Florence Lee, Dempsey's leading woman; Jack Dean, chauffeur.

Fist Fight Results

Mrs. Hayes was the most seriously hurt, sustaining a severe blow on the head and possible internal injuries.

Dempsey was cut by glass and had a bloody nose and bleeding hands when he scrambled out of the wreckage. Hayes and Dean were cut and bruised.

A fist fight between the chauffeur and Hayes developed a few minutes after the accident, it was learned. The fight was said by witnesses to have been stopped by Dempsey, who, for once in his life, acted as "referee."

The fight was said to have started when Hayes, bending over his injured wife, heard her moan: "Oh, that chauffeur—it was his fault. He was driving too fast."

Dempsey Referees

Hayes was declared to have risen to his feet, charged the chauffeur with being responsible for the accident and attacked him. After a couple of punches at the lanky chauffeur, Hayes, a diminutive man, was pulled from the fray, kicking and raging, by Dempsey, witnesses said.

The chauffeur claimed that an automobile approaching from the opposite direction had crowded him from the road. Dempsey's expensive car was completely wrecked.

Hayes and the chauffeur remained beside the wrecked car.

'NO ACCIDENT WEEK' IS PROPOSED FOR GLENDALE

Traffic Commission Has Under Consideration Plan to Place All Drivers Upon Honor to Observe Regulations in Every Detail

Plans for the inauguration of a "No Accident Week" for automobile drivers were discussed at a meeting of the Glendale Traffic commission in the Chamber of Commerce building this morning, during which the owners and drivers of cars will be placed on their honor to observe the traffic regulations to the letter in an effort to show that they are doing their utmost to cooperate with the officials in the enforcement of the laws.

"The principal reasons for automobile accidents," declared M. Walters, chairman, "are those drivers who are unskilled or ignorant or reckless. Drunkenness is also a factor in increasing the number of accidents and fatalities, and I am in favor of making every applicant for a driver's license pass a test, under official supervision before he is permitted to drive a car."

Speed Not Blamed

Mr. Walters pointed out that the percentage of accidents to the passenger miles traveled by automobile passengers is remarkably small, and he also contended that the rate of speed, even though it frequently passes the legal limit laid down by statute, is not primarily the cause of the many accidents that are taking such a heavy toll of life and limb.

"The reckless driver," he declared, "should be arrested, irrespective of whether he is exceeding the speed limit or not."

Robert Adams, another member of the commission, maintained that the present traffic laws are archaic and are based on conditions that prevailed from ten to fifteen years ago, and he urged that steps be taken to bring the

Denies Relatives Ever Will Seek Freedom of Boys

CHICAGO, July 21.—After Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb today entered pleas of guilty to the kidnapping and murder of Robert Franks, a school boy, Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney, declared that he would ask that the boys be incarcerated in the state's prison at Joliet and not at the hospital for the criminal insane at Chester.

I want it explicitly understood that the relatives have no intention ever of securing their freedom," he said. "While the pleas of guilty show them legally sane, yet mentally they are insane, and we are going to produce evidence of extenuating circumstances which should be considered."

SANITY TRIAL FOR YOUTHS URGED BY DEFENSE

Prosecution to Ask Both Boys Be Hanged for Kidnaping-Slaying

By CARL W. HARRIS
For International News Service

CHICAGO, July 21.—In one of the most dramatic court scenes ever enacted, Attorney Clarence Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense in the trial of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, today withdrew pleas of not guilty to charges of kidnaping and slaying Robert Franks, Jr., 13-year-old boy, and entered pleas of guilty for them.

He asked that their mentality be inquired into by the court, and Chief Justice Caverly of the criminal court immediately set Wednesday as the date on which he would announce his ruling.

State's Attorney Crowe announced immediately after the change of the pleas that the facts would make no difference at all in the determination of the state to send the boys to the gallows.

"There is only one just punishment, and I shall insist upon the death penalty," he declared.

Just what sentence an Illinois court might impose now is, of course, a matter of conjecture. In previous cases in which the question of first degree murder has been involved, and the defendant has pleaded guilty, the court frequently has ordered section of a jury to hear the evidence gathered by prosecution and recommend punishment.

Darrow's Statement

In a recent case in which a man pleaded not guilty to shooting a drug store clerk in a holdup, and then changed that plea of guilty, a judge of criminal court ordered a jury organized to hear the evidence and make recommendation of sentence. This defendant was sentenced to life.

Clarence Darrow, chief of defense counsel, entered the court room at 9:30, half an hour before the hearing was scheduled to begin. At his side walked Nathan F. Leopold, father of the youth who is accused with Loeb. Foreman H. Leopold, elder brother of Nathan, Jr., was with his father. They took seats at the front. Seated near by were relatives of young Loeb, including Jacob Loeb, an uncle.

Mr. Darrow's speech to the court follows:

"In the case of the people of the state of Illinois versus Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, I will ask the court to hear me.

Gains Unusual Notice
"This case has given us some busy days and sleepless nights. Nobody knows better what this case means than we. There is no doubt that we have the deepest sympathy for all three families involved."

"This case has attracted unusual attention as you know. It is weird, uncanny and of a terrible nature.

"The case must be considered from the standpoint of all three

Suspects Claim Vice Consul Member of Sect That Opposed Moslems

TEHRAN, Persia, July 21.—A vigorous investigation of the murder of American Vice Consul Major Robert Imbrie was under way today by the Persian government following the protests of the American government.

Martial law has been declared and several men, suspected of being members of the mob of religious fanatics that beat Major Imbrie to death are under arrest. From some of these suspects it was learned that Major Imbrie was suspected of being a member of the Bahai sect, a religious group opposed to the Mohammedans. The attack was precipitated, government officials said, by a report spread among the mob that Major Imbrie had violated the sacred fountain in the public square where he had driven his carriage to take photographs.

TELLS OF G. O. P. CLEVELAND MEET

Mrs. W. E. Evans Attended
As Alternate Delegate to Recent Convention

An interesting account of the Republican convention in Cleveland is being given by Mrs. W. E.
Evans of 625 Cumberland road, who, with Mrs. Evans, was in attendance at the convention. Mr.
Evans went as a delegate, and before leaving San Francisco Mrs.
Evans was made an alternate,
giving her the privilege of a seat on the floor of the convention and all other privileges except voting.

Because of her activity in club affairs and the study of parliamentary procedure, Mrs. Evans found great interest in the great convention.

While in Cleveland Mr. and Mrs. Evans were luncheon guests one day of Mrs. A. L. Weaver at the Women's City club. Mr.
Evans was able to secure convention guest tickets for Mrs. Weaver and her mother, and they attended all sessions.

Delegates Honored
During the convention the women of Cleveland held open house at the various country clubs. In addition the convention delegates were entertained with motor trips about the city.

Mr. Evans is most enthusiastic about the many parks in eastern cities and about the many beautiful trees. In one city trees are being planted in memory of World war heroes, each tree being marked with a stone bearing the name of some man who died for his country.

Painter Paints Wrong House Wrong Color
SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Ab-the painter who did the job, the man who ordered the work done not the woman who owns the house is satisfied with the outcome in repainting the home of Mrs. L. C. Graham, 606 Sixth street, in this city.

Mrs. Graham recently returned from a visit to the coast. When she left her home was white.
When she returned it was a dazzling yellow. The housewife says she did not order the house painted and, anyway, she likes snowy white better than glaring yellow.

C. E. Parks, who ordered the work done, declares he told C.
Carey, the painter, to redecorate
the house at 614 Sixth street, which he owns.

Carey says he understood Parks to say 606 Sixth street. Accordingly he went to that address and did the job.

Mrs. Graham declines to pay on the ground that she did not desire her house painted. Parks declares he will not pay for painting somebody else's home and Carey is nonplussed.

Aid Needed to Fight Forest Fire In State
LOS ANGELES, July 21.— Speaking unofficially, officers of the Conservation Association of Southern California said here that all aid possible was needed to fight forest fires raging in California.

It was stated that unless Governor Richardson takes immediate action asking for federal aid in fighting the fires, a meeting of the association, as well as other organizations, will be called to organize passing of resolutions urging him to take such action.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Conservation association will be held Wednesday, and if the governor has not accepted the offer of federal aid by that time the question of urging him to do so will be taken up at the directors' session, it was declared.

Mystic Smilers Meet In Second Annual Conclave, New Officers Are Chosen

The second annual convention of the Mystic Smile was held last Saturday from 2 to 10 o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church on the corner of Wilson and Kenwood streets.
The affair was pronounced a success by all the delegates and visitors. There were in attendance at the convention delegates from Inglewood, Pasadena, Burbank and Glendale.

Before the regular afternoon meeting, which convened at 2 o'clock, a secret business meeting was held. The annual election of officers and regular business session was held shortly after 2 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by Supreme Grand Mystic Smiler Joe Ewing of Burbank. Invocation and guidance was asked by Gould H. Warren of Glendale. During the course of business a nominating committee composed of Messrs. Wellwood of Burbank, Elwood Inglewood and Gould H. Warren of Glendale, proposed a ticket for the officers for the ensuing year. The following officers were elected: Nelson Dick, Glendale, supreme grand mystic smiler; Earl Debenham, Glendale, grand master of records; Dave Preston, Burbank, grand master of finance; Mr. Polhemus, Burbank, grand chaplain.

The meeting was adjourned shortly after 5 o'clock with the benediction by William Rich of Glendale.

Chicken Dinner
At 6:30 o'clock over a hundred Smilers and guests were escorted into the social hall of the church where a chicken dinner was served by the women of the local church. The social hall had been decorated artistically with the local chapter colors, blue and white, with festoons of crepe paper. Two long aisles formed by potted palms, ferns and other potted plants donated for the occasion
by the Brand Boulevard Nursery, marked the way to the banquet
table.

During the serving of the banquet, the Glendale Mystic Smiler orchestra, led by William Wiese, rendered several selections.

After the serving of the banquet, Nelson Dick, chairman of the committee on arrangements, introduced Gould H. Warren, toastmaster of the evening, who welcomed the delegates and guests. Community singing was led by J. B. Clarke of Glendale which was followed by a talk by Dr. Robert E. Rose of Eagle Rock.
Dr. Rose spoke on "What the Mystic Smile Means to the Community," giving a short resume of the work accomplished the past year by the local chapter.

Mayor Spencer Robinson was then introduced and in his usual manner expressed a few words of appreciation and encouragement of the Mystic Smile. Later he sang "Harvest Time."

The next speaker on the program was Past Supreme Grand Mystic Smiler Joe Ewing of Burbank. Mr. Ewing gave a brief history of the Mystic Smile, giving the motives and ideals of the organization.

Tells Year's Plans
Nelson Dick, newly elected supreme grand Mystic Smiler, gave a short talk outlining the work ahead of the Mystic Smile for the coming months. He proposed a large expansion program for the immediate future.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Rev.
Charles Coke Woods, pastor of the Lincoln Avenue Methodist church of Pasadena. He chose as his subject, "Old Fashioned Novelties." Mr. Woods stated, "The main question of the day is not,
'Is there anything new?' but 'Is there anything true?'"

We want to understand that our interest must be in the true things and not in the new things. We must have fundamental things to tie to and stand on. We cannot possibly get along and progress without the old fashioned things, salt, light, and air. We modernists are making progress and getting along so well because we have learned better how to utilize those old fashioned things of our forefathers.

The world has a right to expect better things of us than from our forefathers."

Urges Whipping Post
As Curb for Robbers
SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Reinstatement of the whipping post as a punishment for robbery and all crimes committed with the aid of deadly weapons as a means of reducing crime, was advocated today by Charles S. Morrill, superintendent of the state bureau of criminal identification and investigation.

"The report of this bureau for the fiscal year ending July 1 will show an alarming increase in crime," said Morrill. "It is generally agreed by police officials that drastic action must be taken to stop the crime wave."

"In Canada return to the 'cat
o' nine tails,' has curbed the activities of thugs and in England and other European countries its use is a strong corrective. Criminals fear severe physical punishment much more than a long prison term."

LOCAL AUTOIST ASKS FAIR PLAY

Traffic Laws' Enforcement
In Glendale Arouses
Writer to Protest

Editor The Evening News—The undersigned has heretofore refrained from taking any part in the controversy concerning the methods of the traffic officers of our fair city and of those who should be responsible for their actions. I, with a great many others in Glendale, have been satisfied to let well enough alone as long as we are not molested, as we tried the best we could to conform to the rules of the road and to safeguard not only our own lives, but the lives of others as well.

But I would like at this time to enter my protest (along with others who, I have noticed, have used your columns for the same purpose) against those methods.

Visit Many Cities
I, with my family, returned at 1 p. m. Sunday from a pleasure trip covering a distance of 165 miles, during which distance I passed through sixteen cities and towns, some of them twice, including most of the towns in Orange county, one of which,
Santa Ana, which, as we all know (outside of our own city of Glendale) has the reputation of handing out more impositions on the automobile public than any city in southern California.

In all this distance I did not once see the disgusting incident of a motor cop molesting any autoist until I had got two blocks inside the city limits of Glendale on my return. But that was not all, for when I was within 100 feet of my own home I was myself halted, why I know not as yet,
and handed one of those free passes allowing me the privilege of facing His Honor and doing my mite towards the upbuilding, the uplifting and for the honor and glory of the traffic department of the Glendale Police force.

But still there was more, for I was compelled, with the rest of the citizenry of Glendale, to listen all the rest of the 'ay (which is ordinarily considered a day of quiet) until a late hour to that shrilling, screeching, nerve-racking noise from the sirens which our motor cops so energetically use. I might say, though, that the day was no different from any other day in our lives as days now go.

Capable of Judging
Of course I know what answer to expect, viz., that because I witnessed no interference with autoists during my trip is no reason that those in or going through our fair city should be exempt from such, but enough of that.

Thank God the people of Glendale are fully capable of thinking and acting for themselves. Now I for one think it is high time for the people of this city, instead of being compelled to listen to explanations and excuses, be given an exemplification of American liberty for law-abiding citizens and fair play.

Delegates to Women's League to Be Guests
LOS ANGELES, July 21.—When delegates of the Women's Overseas Service League visit here on their way to San Francisco to attend the annual convention
they will be royally entertained,
it was announced today.

The delegates will be in Los Angeles from July 8 to 11, during which time they will be entertained at Mission Inn, Riverside, taken for auto tours of the city with a visit to San Gabriel Mission, where a special performance of the Mission Play will be given after which the visitors will be the guests at a banquet at one of the large downtown hostleries.

On the last day of their stay the delegates will be guests of the chamber of commerce and will be given an auto bus tour to the beaches with stops at the motion picture studios and the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle. A garden party will be held in their honor at the home of Mrs. E. M. Fowler in Pasadena, following which the guests will be taken in private cars to the evening performance at the Hollywood Bowl or the Egyptian theatre.

Cares for Pets Left At Quarantine Post
SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Enforcement of quarantine restrictions due to the foot and mouth disease, has resulted in the establishment of a dog and cat refuge at Red Bluff, in which pets left behind by motorists are cared for by Mrs. Albert Preusser.

"Some of the guests of this hostelry are in arrears for the sustenance," said Mrs. Preusser,
"but in the majority of instances,
the travelers who left their pets behind pay their bills promptly and are most solicitous concerning their welfare."

Seventy-five dogs and thirty cats are "registered" at the temporary sanatorium.

Eight States to Ship
37,659 Cars of Melons
ATLANTA, July 21.—Eight melon growing states are expected to ship 37,659 cars this season, according to the bureau of estimates here. Of this amount, Alabama is expected to account for 1938 cars, California 1824, Florida 6941, North Carolina 1288,
South Carolina 4042, Texas 6930
and Georgia 14,384.

HOLDS CHLORINE TEST SUCCESSFUL

Doctor States That Trials Show Inhaling Gas Is Remedy for 'Flu'

NEW YORK, July 21.—The recent experiments of Health Commissioner Dr. Frank J. Monaghan to cure "flu" by the inhaling of chlorine gas have been somewhat successful, the commissioner stated recently.

"Two of those who volunteered for the experiment suffering with colds in the head," Dr. Monaghan said, "declared that they felt better, lighter and clearer after the treatment. Against this we must balance the mental reaction, which could tend to bring about just such a result."

Make Initial Test
"The initial test is only the beginning. We will go on with our experiments until we are convinced we have taken a false lead, or until claims for chlorine are proven. What a wonderful thing if it should turn out to be a positive cure!"

People willing to be experimented on, who are suffering from colds or the "flu," according to the commissioner, are conducted into an airtight room filled with a mixture of the gas and air,
which they inhale for an hour.

May Raise Gasoline Tax to Build Roads

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—
Practically a unanimous sentiment in favor of jumping the state gasoline tax to three cents per gallon to finance future road work, has been found by Governor Richardson's special committee investigating the state highway system, it was stated today by George Radcliff, a member of the committee.

Radcliff, who represents the State Board of Control on the investigating body, declared that in every county visited the committee has found general opposition to additional bond issues for road construction purposes.

An increase of one cent per gallon in the gas tax with a proviso that all funds collected as a result of the increase be set aside solely for the state, would practically solve the problem of raising money to continue the state's program of road construction,
Radcliff asserted.

Unchecked Petitions Worthless, Is Claim

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—
Scores of petitions for the various initiatives which will be submitted to the voters in November are being received at the office of Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, which are invalid because they have not been checked and verified by the county clerks prior to submission to the secretary of state, according to Charles Haggerty, election statistician in Jordan's office.

"Failure to secure verification of signatures by the county clerk before sending to this office may result in several initiatives failing to qualify on the November ballot," said Haggerty.

K. C. WILL HONOR NOTED SCIENTIST

Memorial Observatory for Father Ricard Planned At Santa Clara

In his inaugural message to the Grand Knights of eighty-nine Knights of Columbus councils of California, the new state deputy, Thomas F. White of Los Angeles, today stressed the necessity for unanimous and enthusiastic response by the entire "Casey" membership in the state, to the call just started for $100,000 in subscriptions, with which to erect a Knights of Columbus new, modern memorial observatory for Father Jerome S. Ricard, the beloved "Padre of the Rains" at the University of Santa Clara.

Unanimously adopted by resolution at the order's last state council in Pasadena during May, the project of providing for the venerable long-range weather forecaster at the old Mission Santa Clara university a suitable building and adequate equipment to extend and improve on his splendid work, to date, has also attained possibilities through furnishing the means for the instruction of a group of young men, who will be placed under Father Ricard's skilled tutelage, and thus be prepared to carry on his great work when he passes on.

Will Solicit Funds

It is proposed to call on each Knight of Columbus in the state to contribute generously to the fund now being raised, and members of the families of Knights, and their friends, will also be invited to subscribe to the $100,000 memorial observatory foundation. Committees and sub-committees will be organized in the various councils to take charge of the work of solicitation within those subordinate branches, and facilities have also been provided at the University of Santa Clara to take care of direct contributions at that place.

Harry I. Mulcrey, county clerk of San Francisco, has been appointed chairman of the Knights of Columbus memorial observatory committee, and Daniel P. Maher, state secretary of the order, will serve as secretary. Rev. E. Ryan, S. J., at the University of Santa Clara, Santa Clara, Calif., has been named treasurer of the fund.

State Deputy White plans to hold the formal dedication of the completed Knights of Columbus memorial observatory to Father Ricard one year from the present week. High officials of the church and state officers of the Knights of Columbus will be invited to Santa Clara for the dedicatory exercises.

Glendale Artist Has Long Beach Exhibit

John W. Cotton of 1202 East Colorado street, nationally known etcher and painter, has an exhibit of aqua tints, water colors and oil paintings hung for the month of July in the Architectural club rooms at 445 East First street, Long Beach. There are over fifty pictures in the exhibit. Mr. and Mrs. Cotton motored to the beach one afternoon recently for a reception at the club rooms.

GIRL SCOUTS TO CAMP AT BEACH

Mothers of Troop Members Plan to Accompany Party on Holiday

Mrs. F. A. Beach, commissioner of the Girl Scouts' Council, announces the summer camp will be located at Hollywood Beach, three miles from Oxnard, instead of in the mountains as first planned.

The camp will convene the third week in August, it is announced. The captains of the six troops will attend, including the officers of the council and a number of the mothers of the Girl Scouts.

Troop Captains

The captains of the troops are as follows: Miss Gladys Sharpe, troop 1; Mrs. W. R. Wichert, acting captain of troop 2; Mrs. R. C. Horner, troop 3; Miss Margaret Sharpe, troop 4; Mrs. Endsley, troop 5; Mrs. Bure, troop 6. Officers of the council are: Mrs. F. A. Beach, commissioner; Mrs. J. Brennan, deputy commissioner; Mrs. W. R. Wichert, secretary; Mrs. E. W. Rount, treasurer; Mrs. George U. Moyle, Mrs. R. Ernest Tucker and Mrs. A. S. Chase, committee at large.

Col. Harris, who has traveled extensively in Australia, has very kindly consented to give a series of lectures to the Girl Scouts pertaining to his travels in Australia. Mrs. Beach announces a council meeting will not be held tonight as announced owing to the fact that so many of the members are out of town.

F. H. Dagley Goes to Santa Ana as Manager

Glendale friends of F. H. Dagley of South Glendale avenue, who has served the Pendroy company for a year and a half as buyer for the silk department, will be interested to learn that he has accepted the position of manager and buyer for the E. S. Gilbert dry goods and ready-to-wear store in Santa Ana. Before coming to Glendale Mr. Dagley had ten years of business success in Oklahoma. He has made many friends in Glendale during his business association here.

Mr. Dagley plans on leaving Glendale the latter part of the month to take up his new work. His family, consisting of Mrs. Dagley, son Leslie and daughter Miss Dorothy Dagley, will remain in Glendale temporarily. Another daughter, Mrs. Alene Beedy, and her family, will also move to Santa Ana.

G. A. R. Veterans Plan Picnic at Echo Park

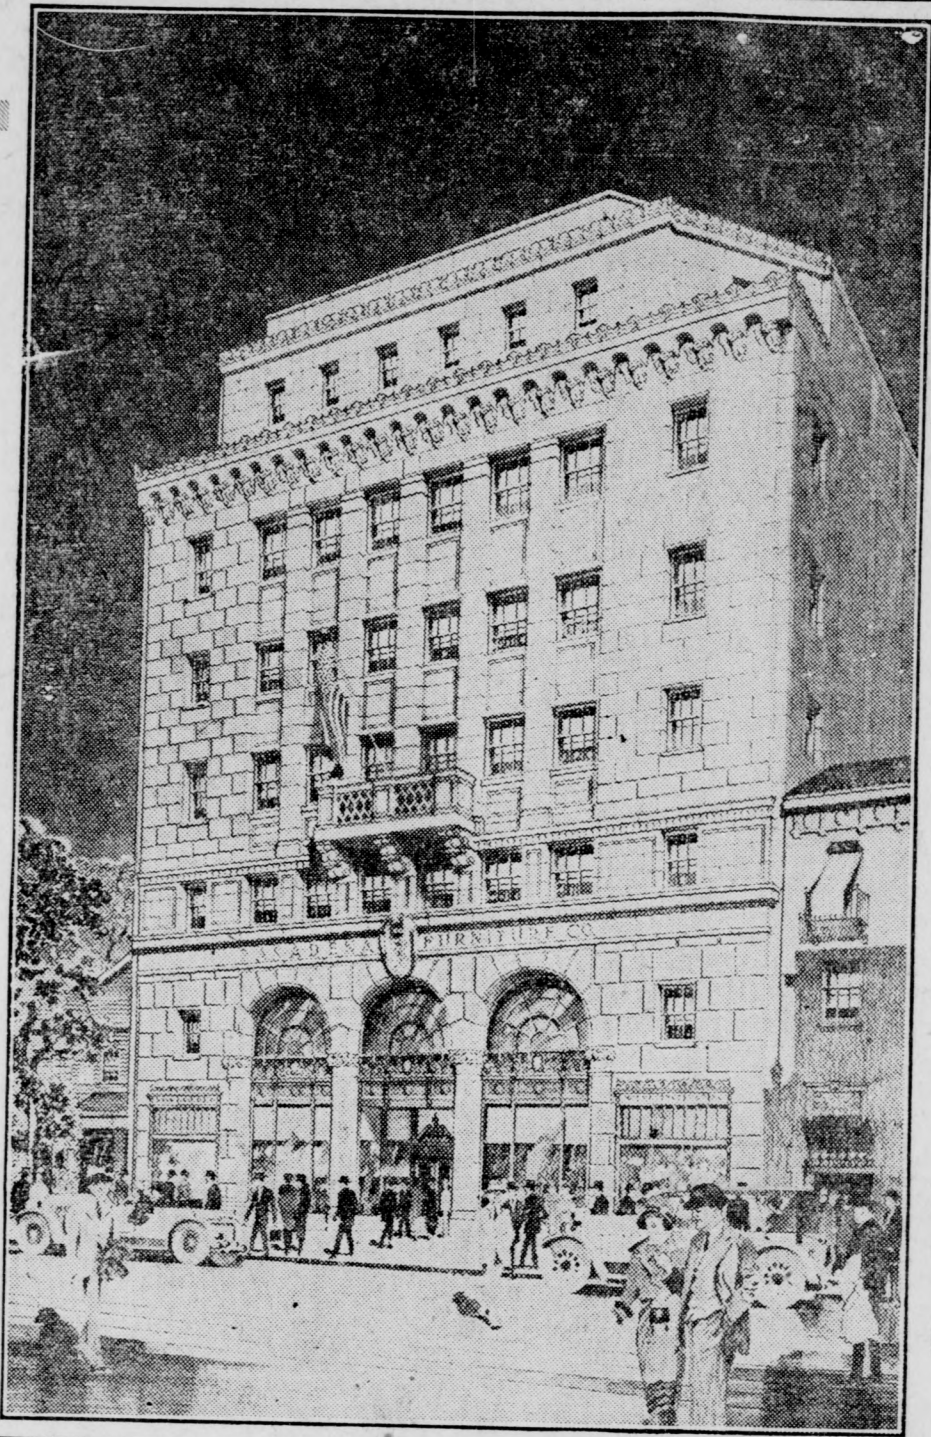

Civil War veterans of N. P. Banks post and members of the Women's Relief corps are to have their annual picnic all day Friday in Echo park, Los Angeles. The picnic outing was planned for later in the summer, but the plans were changed so that the affair will occur this week. Those attending are to take basket lunches and dishes. Coffee will be served by the W. R. C.

C. C. Secretary Takes Course at Stanford

Secretary E. F. Sanders of the Chamber of Commerce left last night for Palo Alto, where he will attend the summer school for commercial secretaries for the coming week at Stanford university. During his absence Miss Bessie M. Hale is in charge of the Chamber of Commerce office. The regular weekly board meeting, scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed until next week.

Fine Furniture Building

Pasadena Furniture company's proposed building, East Colorado street, Pasadena. Curlett & Beelman, architects; Frederick Kennedy, associated, S. M. Benet & Co. Since the first announcement of this new building the plans have been changed from a seven-story to an eight-story and basement structure, with a decided change in the exterior. This will give the Pasadena Furniture company ample room for the housing of their entire plant under one roof, except a garage, which will be built in the near future. Their entire stock of home furnishings will be closed out in their present location on North Raymond avenue, Pasadena. This will give the public an unusual opportunity to make purchases for their future needs.

SUMMER TIME IS AID TO BUSINESS

Lexie Allison Finds Trade Increasing In Paints And Wall Paper

Lexie Allison is pleased with the excellent patronage he has received since moving into his new store at 609 South Brand boulevard, and reports increased business in the real estate department as well as in the paint and wallpaper trade.

He says that the real estate business is becoming more active and he has closed several deals within the last ten days. The latest of these was a residence on West Ivy street which he disposed of last Friday. Mr. Allison has extensive listings of attractive Glendale property.

The demand for paints and wall paper has been unusually heavy for the summer months, due to the fact that many Glendale people are taking advantage of vacations to have their houses painted and redecorated. Mr. Allison points out that new paint will add many hundreds of dollars to the price that can be secured for any residence and urges anyone desiring to sell to see him for estimates.

Ex-Georgia Judge Is New Thought Speaker

Judge Joel Smith, formerly judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Georgia, addressed the New Thought center Sunday morning on "The Law of Demonstration."

Old Coins Taken by Burglars From House

The home of T. H. Newman, at 401 West Colorado boulevard, was entered by thieves Sunday night, and jewelry and old coins amounting to several hundred dollars removed. A photograph and a bundle of rugs were found near the door by the owner, on his return, indicating that the thieves had not completed their work when frightened away.

The police department was notified and investigation revealed that entrance was gained through a screen door on the back porch. Neighbors declared they had seen a tall, dark-haired man in a brown suit loitering around the premises about 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Final Exercises at Bible School Friday

Plans are being made for the final exercises Friday night of the daily vacation Bible school at the First Methodist church. H. I. Rasmus, Jr., and Mrs. McKay have had charge of the school. The program Friday night at 7:30 o'clock will be featured by two pageants, "Joseph and His Brothers" and "The Baby Moses." There will also be songs and recitations.

Southern Rice Stock Smallest on Record

NEW ORLEANS, July 21.—Rice stocks in this state July 1 were the smallest on record, amounting to only 303,000 bags. June consumption, however, was low. The market is firm with best grades quoted at 6 1/4 to 6 1/2 cents a pound.

VICTIM OF AUTO CRASH SUCCUMBS

Grant Strickland of Burbank Dies In Hospital of Brain Hemorrhage

Grant Strickland of Burbank died Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Glendale hospital, the result of injuries he sustained when he was struck by an automobile driven by T. F. Kerker, 106 Ash street, Burbank, at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. Strickland's address is given as Route 2, Box 813, Burbank.

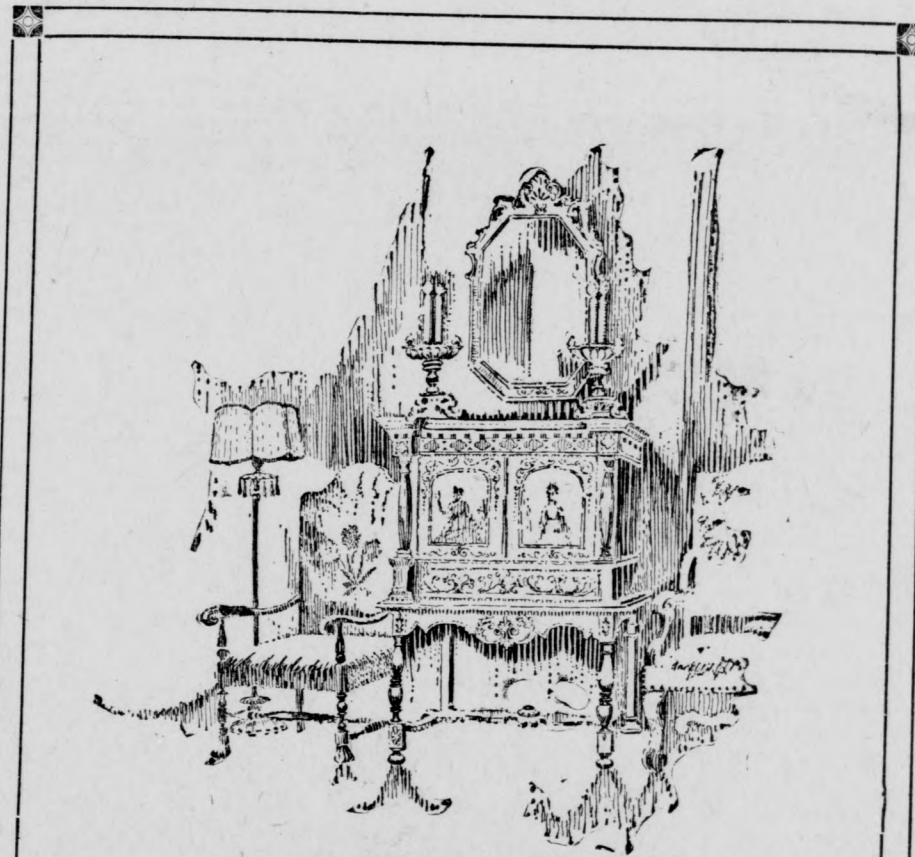

Strickland had halted his car opposite the Ranch Market on North San Fernando Road and had started to cross the boulevard when Kerker's car, coming south, struck him. He was immediately taken to the hospital, where it was thought at first that his injuries were of a minor nature, but hemorrhage of the brain developed and he died yesterday morning.

County Coroner Frank A. Nance will hold an inquest at the Klefer & Eyerick undertaking parlors Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Interest In Company Sold; Will Go North

F. S. Card of La Crescenta has sold his interest in the General Construction company, with offices at 203 East Harvard street, and with Mrs. Card will leave tomorrow morning for a month's business trip north to Portland, Ore.

INDEX TO CO-OPERATIVE DEPARTMENT

PAGE 6 OF THIS ISSUE OF THE EVENING NEWS

Of course when you want to buy merchandise of any kind you are anxious to patronize a Glendale dealer. When you wish to employ professional skill it is your desire to secure a local man. When repair work is needed it is to your advantage to have the work done by mechanics near home.

The object of this index column is to refer you to the CO-OPERATIVE DEPARTMENT on Page 6 of this issue, where you will find listed a large number of merchants, tradesmen and professional men who are real boosters for Glendale. While the Community Loyalty Section will appear in The Evening News one day every week, yet readers are advised to cut it out and hold it for reference for the purpose of ascertaining names and locations of business firms in Glendale.

ADVENTISTS PLAN TWO-DAY MEETING

Biennial Conference to Be Held In Long Beach City Auditorium

Leaders of Seventh-day Adventist activities in Glendale are planning on spending Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Long Beach, where the biennial session of the Southern California conference will be held in the municipal auditorium. This gathering will take the place of the annual camp meeting.

The Southern California conference includes San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles counties and that part of Kern county south of Tehachapi mountain.

One of the big features of the gathering will be the election of officers.

Leaders in Charge
 Presiding will be Elder W. M. Adams of Eagle Rock, president of the Southern California conference; Elder A. D. Daniels, former president and now secretary of the General Conference; Elder O. Montgomery, vice-president of the General Conference; Elder J. L. McElhany, president of the Pacific Union Conference.

Elder R. W. Parmele, pastor of the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist church, will be in attendance. This gathering at the beach will be followed on Saturday by two big union meetings in Trinity auditorium in Los Angeles. All churches in the Southern California Conference are to join at 10 o'clock in the morning, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, for meetings.

Mrs. Toll Mentioned In Federation Race

The name of Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Glendale, president of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, is being mentioned by California club women as a possible candidate for the presidency of the California Federation, which will elect officers next year at a convention to be held May 19, 20 and 21 at Santa Cruz. Another possible candidate mentioned is Dr. Mariana Bertola of San Francisco.

Mrs. Lillian Dow to Visit Eastern Points

Mrs. Lillian Dow of 650 North Kenwood street, long-time resident of Glendale and prominent in club affairs, is to leave Wednesday morning for a three months' trip east, planning to visit her home city, Boston, Mass.

From Glendale Mrs. Dow will go north to Seattle and Vancouver and then east through the Canadian Rockies, stopping at Lake Louise. Later she will visit Montreal and will go on from there to Portland, Maine, where she will spend the month of August. In September she will visit New Hampshire and later Boston. Returning west she will stop in New York, Washington, D. C., and Chicago, arriving in Glendale the latter part of October.

Pastor Returns From Week's Camping Jaunt

Attendants yesterday at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church were happy to greet the pastor, Rev. J. C. Livingston, who with Dr. Bion S. Warner and Dr. J. E. Eckles, returned late last week from a week's camping and fishing in the Mt. Whitney trail country in Tulare county. Mr. Livingston takes a vacation trip to this section every year and reports that all the time they were in camp they did not see anyone else. Which is a tributary of the Upper Kern river. He states that streams that in previous summers have been running full and wide are very low this year.

Registration Books Will Close July 26th

Registration for the August primary elections will close Saturday, July 26, at midnight, according to Mrs. Sydney Dell, deputy registrar, 923 North Louise street, who states that anyone who desires to vote in the election should register before midnight of this week, while there is still time to have changed their address. Last registering should be done by Saturday.

Mrs. Dell is one of the voters at the Security Savings bank each day from 9 a. m. and at her home from 2 o'clock at night.

Diet And Health

By LULU HUNT PETERS, M. D.

NATURAL FOODS AND VIRILITY—No. 1

In a remote part of the Himalayas there are several isolated races, far removed from modern civilization. Certain of these races are of magnificent physique. They are unusually fertile and long-lived. Their nervous systems are of notable stability and they preserve until late in life the characteristics of youth. Have they found some magic rejuvenator, some fountain of youth? No, the reasons for their virility are that they live on natural foods; their religion prohibits the use of alcohol, and their manner of life requires vigorous exercise of their bodies.

This assertion is according to Robert McCarrison, a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians in London and a lieutenant colonel in the Indian Medical Service. Dr. McCarrison has spent nine years of his professional life among these Himalayans.

It would interest you to know what diet would keep you vigorous and youthful and long-lived as these people wouldn't it? Well, here's what they eat: Milk, eggs, whole grains, fruits and vegetables; in other words, not the demoralized, devitalized, debilitated, super-refined, preserved, purified, polished, pickled, concentrated foods that we consume so much of, but the unsophisticated foods of Nature; foods that supply the elements needed for perfect functioning and perfect health, foods that have not been deprived of their minerals and their vitamins, foods that are not dead fuel masses.

Sounds sort of familiar, doesn't it? Yes, it is the same diet that we have been talking about in the column until we should know it by heart; but have some of you taken it to heart as much as you should. Haven't some of you said: "Oh, this is a fact—this vitamin and mineral elements business"? Have you modified your diet from the white-bread-meat-potato-pie-sugar standard?

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on "Diet and Health" is the only one for which you must enclose a stamp. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it for anything but to answer your questions. I appreciate your interest in the beautiful letters you send me and regret that it is impossible to give you individual advice. Don't forget to ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget to send me the information I have offered.

There are no deficiency diseases among these Himalayan peoples. Their foods supply all their needs. Dr. McCarrison never saw a case of dyspepsia, gastro or duodenal ulcer, appendicitis, mucous colitis or cancer during the nine years he lived with them. He believes that

Campers sometimes get tired of fried fish, pancake and the other conventional camp dishes. Under such circumstances the following dishes will be found most welcome:

Baked Corn Dish—Turn one can of corn into an earthenware crock and stir into it one well-beaten egg and salt and pepper to season. Cover, then stand the crock in hot wood-fire embers for an hour or more. Then serve.

Tomato-Cheese Frump—Turn one can of tomatoes into an earthenware crock, stir into it one-half pound of mild, American cheese shaved thinly, add a pinch of salt and either one tablespoon of flour or one-half cup of bread crumbs, then stand the crock in only mildly warm wood-embers and leave till the embers are cold, or for one-half hour (very intense heat heat merely melts, and gives it a creamy consistency).

Cereal Scramble—Use any cereal for this dish. Cook it as if for breakfast but instead of eating it, turn it into a shallow pan, stir into it one quart of it one cupful of cooked bacon broken fairly small, and let the mixture cool and become solid. Then cut it in slices and fry in bacon fat. Serve hot.

Social : Clubs

Edited by KATHERINE V. SINKS

Thursday Affair

An informal social diversion to be participated in by Glendale women enjoying cards will be the card party series to be given the fourth Thursday afternoon of each month at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. These affairs are being arranged by Mrs. Homer D. Lockwood, chairman of the ways and means committee of the club, and the first one will take place Thursday afternoon of this week. The card games are to begin at 2:15 o'clock. Progression will be made in tables of four, enabling any one desiring to fill four tables to do so and play within her own group. Light refreshments are to be served.

Officers' Guests

Appointive officers of the Carnation Rebekah lodge are to be special guests Friday night, when Mrs. Loretta Schwitters, president, of the Past Noble Grand's association, entertains the organization at her home at 525 North Adams street. Mrs. H. C. Smith, past president, will be assisting hostess. Other officers of the lodge and all past noble grand's of any jurisdiction are also invited to attend. The subject of "Appointive Officers and Their Duties" will be taken up by Mrs. Rosella Strother, past district deputy president.

Luncheon Honor

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of 111 North Everett street entertained recently with a luncheon complimenting their niece, Mrs. John D. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Esther Ferguson of Dunsmuir, Calif., who are visiting here. Covers were laid for the honor guests and Miss Olive Bell Emery, Mrs. Josephine Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richardson.

Omar Card Party

One of the social events scheduled for this week is the card party, to be given Saturday night at the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard by Omar Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem. Marlon Thompson is to serve as chairman of cards; Edith Coghlan and Mary Freeman, in charge of refreshments, and Mina Wenzel will arrange the program.

Lodge to Picnic

Members of Glendale Chapter, U. D. Order of Eastern Star, met for a picnic night in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard, decided on August 16 as the date for a basket picnic. The place of the outing is to be announced shortly. The picnic committee includes Henry Cozad, Robert Lawson, Emma Joralemon and Agnes Allan.

Outing at Beach

Members of the Business & Professional Women's club were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon by Mrs. John Robert White of 347 North Orange street, at her cottage at Hermosa beach, with a beach party and picnic outing. The affair was well attended and a very pleasant informal afternoon enjoyed.

Entertains Club

Mrs. Ray Engle of 712 South Maryland avenue, will entertain the members of the Rodale club at her home on Wednesday night, July 23.

Lipton Planning New Yacht Cup Challenge

LONDON, July 21.—Although Sir Thomas Lipton has not issued a formal challenge for the America cup, it has been learned that the veteran yachtsman is considering plans for a new challenge boat. Several prominent British yacht designers are now at work on plans for a boat that Sir Thomas hopes will enable him to fulfill his life-long ambition to lift the cup.

Prices Advancing on All Kinds of Flour

SEATTLE, July 21.—Soaring prices for fancy milling wheat, the advance in which has been 19 cents a bushel in thirty days, have been followed by an increase to $8.10 per barrel for best patent flour by Puget Sound and Columbia river mills. Similar increases have taken place in bakers' flour and there has been an advance of $1 in mill feed.

Inter-Coastal Trade Shows Improvement

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Intercoastal shipping which has been slack, has shown marked improvement in the last fortnight, according to steamship companies. Trade with the Orient also is providing good cargoes and shipping rates are stable.

Sen. Walsh Resigns as Chairman of Campaign

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Senator David I. Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, today resigned as chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, Senator A. A. Jones, Democrat, of New Mexico, immediately was elected to succeed Walsh.

Mother's Birthday

Mrs. M. Ewell Smith, mother of Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and Mrs. F. W. Pigg, was honored yesterday on the occasion of her seventieth birthday with a family dinner party at the W. E. Evans home at 625 Cumberland road.

Golden daffodils formed the centerpiece for the dinner table, while the favors were gold, red and green birds, mounted on wires. The birthday cake was in the form of an open basket, holding roses, violets and forget-me-nots, and bearing the word "Mother" in gold letters.

Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Phillips and daughters, Anna Ewell and Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Evans and daughter Catherine.

In the afternoon a company of other relatives and friends arrived at the Evans home with basket lunches and bathing suits. The afternoon was spent swimming and later lunch enjoyed.

Those arriving in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Furst and son, Tom, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockwood and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newport, Mrs. McCourt, Miss Miriam McCourt, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCourt and son and daughter, Dewey and Martha.

Mrs. Smith was most happy to receive from her daughter, Mrs. Jones, who is traveling abroad, some artistic booklets of her travels.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their daughter plan to sail August 27 for home. Mrs. Smith plans on meeting them in New York.

Informal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Keers and Miss Keers of 128 South Kenwood street entertained one evening recently with a dinner for Harry B. Wylie and his wife, Florence Mitchell Wylie, who are to leave August 12 to take up missionary work in India as representatives of the Presbyterian church. Other guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clendenin.

All Day Meeting

The Mrs. George L. Robinson group of the Home Mission Society of the First Methodist church will meet for the regular all-day session Wednesday, July 23, at the home of Mrs. Laura Clifton, corner of Orilla street, Verdugo road.

Grain Companies of Northwest Would Sell

MINNEAPOLIS, July 21.—Thirty-six of the leading grain companies of the northwest, most of them with headquarters and great terminals in Minneapolis, today offered to sell their entire holdings, including 1062 country elevators in Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana; twenty-two terminal elevators in Minneapolis and twelve terminal elevators in Duluth—and aggregate capacity of approximately 70,000,000 bushels—to the American Farm Bureau federation, which is undertaking a gigantic extension of co-operative marketing of grain.

The offer was made in a letter to O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau federation, and one of the leaders in the new grain handling company, which recently incorporated in Illinois with a capital stock of $28,000,000, the purpose of taking over five of the biggest grain firms in Chicago, and to the directors of the bureau.

Richards and Hunter Win Olympic Doubles

PARIS, July 21.—America scored another triumph in Olympic tennis competition today, when Vincent Richards and Francis T. Hunter defeated Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon of France in the men's doubles title. The score was 6-2, 6-3, 2-6, 3-6.

The victory in the men's doubles will give the American tennis players a clean sweep in all the events. Helen Wills, California girl wonder, triumphed in the women's singles; Richards won the men's singles, and the team of Miss Wills-Mrs. Wightman won the women's doubles.

In the other competition, the mixed doubles, two American teams will fight it out for the title. The Olympic weight lifting contests were held in the velodrome today. The first contest was that of featherweights, lifting with one arm. Savigny of France, Juillard of Switzerland and Persola of Portugal all lifted 110 pounds.

Report 200 Arrested For Death of Imbrie

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Two hundred arrests have been made by Persian authorities in an investigation into the murder of Major Robert Imbrie, American vice-consul at Teheran, Persia, according to a cable received this afternoon by the state department. The dispatch stated that K. Halosi Zedeh, a Mullah, was arrested as leader of the mob which beat Imbrie to death.

Chats On Beauty

By EDNA KENT FORBES

HAIR DYES

Hair dyes is a dangerous subject to talk about, for every woman resents gray hair long before she accepts it or even begins to like it and wants to restore the color. And we go gray early now; it is so uncommon to see women with quite gray hair and the faces of mere girls. We work, play, live too hard, these days.

But, science, as usual, comes to the rescue. Some day the really harmless, easily applied, ideal hair dye will be invented. There are dyes on the market now which will restore the color to nine heads out of ten. But the owner of the tenth gets skin disease or loses all her hair. You remember the adage about one man's meat being another man's poison!

Henna is the only absolutely safe dye I know of except a few very expensive things that only a specialist can handle. But henna dyes red. Now, however, Monsieur Joerin, once of Paris, now of London, uses henna of different kinds, combined with lemon juice—of all unthinkable things—pyrogallol acid, or indigo, to obtain every shade from brown to black. Sometimes it's henna with lemon (about that I'll speak later); sometimes the pyrogallol acid (acid made from oak nuts or nutgalls); sometimes the indigo.

M. Joerin uses, too, Egyptian, Indian, or the rarer Syrian henna, according to the shade of hair he wants. But he knows to the minute how long to leave on the henna, how not to apply it, how much absorbent cotton to roll around the head so as to keep it in an even, warm temperature. I can't, in this short space, tell you exactly how to follow M. Joerin's methods. But perhaps your hair dresser will know. For henna, combined this way, gives different shades and is harmless. But we'll talk more of this another day.

If your hair has suddenly taken this tendency to graying there must be some condition of the scalp that is causing it. Possibly you would check the condition if you stimulated your scalp through a good tonic and plenty of massage. If you are in need of such a tonic, the picrocarpine formula often mentioned in the Chats would be helpful. A daily massage of the scalp will do much toward correcting any trouble.

Diana—Massage your throat with a building cream or almond oil, and use an astringent on it every week. Plastic surgery will not be suited to your case.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in the next issue. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

GEORGE C. COUNTRYMAN

Funeral services for George Chaffant Countryman, who died July 15, 1924, was held Thursday afternoon at the home of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Countryman of 318 North Isabel street. The services were conducted by Rev. Rich of the Adventist church, assisted by Rev. D. M. Helmick, a retired Methodist minister and a close friend of the family.

Mr. Countryman, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Martha Lee, came to Glendale a month ago to visit his parents and his two sisters, Mrs. Henry Westphal and Mrs. Fred Spillman. He had been in poor health for some time before coming to Glendale. Soon after his arrival his condition became more acute. The best surgical and medical skill were secured but all to no avail.

He was born in Birmingham, Iowa, November 24, 1877, where he grew to manhood and later was married to Nellie Andreas. They made their home in New London, Iowa, where Mr. Countryman established himself as an undertaker and funeral director. His kindness of heart and cheerfulness of manner endeared him to all with whom he associated, in their homes, and in the neighborhood in which he lived. He always had a word of comfort and cheerful hope for the sorrowing.

Friday morning the remains were shipped to New London, Iowa, for interment. Mrs. Countryman and daughter, Martha Lee, and Dr. and Mrs. Westphal accompanied the body east. The L. G. Scovern Undertaking company was in charge of the arrangements.

WILLIAM J. ECKLES

William J. Eckles died Sunday night, July 20, 1924, at his home, 1256 Western avenue, at the age of 28 years. He was a native of Iowa and is survived by his wife, Martha. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the L. G. Scovern Undertaking company.

MRS. VELLA ANDERSON

Mrs. Vella Anderson of 1102 East California avenue, died Saturday, July 19, 1924, at a local hospital at the age of 38 years. She is survived by her husband, a son, Kenneth; a daughter, a sister, Mrs. Olie Weir of Los Angeles; a brother, W. H. Williams of Big Creek.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park. Kiefer & Eyerick, directors.

Three Are Drowned In Russian River Sunday

GUERNEVILLE, Cal., July 21.—Three lives were lost over Sunday by drowning in the Russian river. James Licht and Irving Meyerson, both 21, of San Francisco, lost their lives when a canoe in which they were rowing near here upset last night. They were reported to have been changing seats when the canoe capsized. Both were expert swimmers, but the suddenness of the accident apparently caused them to lose their nerve or they were suddenly attacked with heart failure. Their bodies were recovered and brought here today.

SELECT CAST TO PRESENT COMEDY

'The Intimate Strangers' By Tarkington Chosen as Club's Offering

EAGLE ROCK, July 21.—The cast for the Booth Tarkington play, "The Intimate Strangers," has been selected, and the play will be presented at the Women's clubhouse on the night of Friday, August 8. The Community Players are staging this play, under the direction of Mrs. Elgie Lowry Fischer.

Miss Florence Stevens, Occidental graduate, is to take the leading role, of Isabel. She will be supported by Edmund Brady, whose previous work in dramatic productions has been among the outstanding attractions in Eagle Rock community plays. He will appear as Ames, the perplexed bachelor, who cannot for the life of him see through the confusing remarks of Isabel Stuart, with whom he is cast away—not on a desert island, but at a desolate little railway station isolated in an electric storm which has disturbed all telephone connections.

Character Actor
Philip Swenson, commissary chief of the U. S. S. Pittsburgh when it was flagship of the Pacific fleet, who often delighted members of the crew with character sketches, has been chosen to take the part of the irate station master, who could tell about as much in regard to incoming and outgoing trains as an American schoolboy could about the laws of China. Miss M. Newton, who has also been successful in local dramatic productions, is to appear as Aunt Ellen, the elderly aunt, who somehow adds to the perplexity concerning the age of Isabel, who is also called aunt.

Senator J. H. Lenthold and wife, of Molt, Mont., who were visiting his mother, Mrs. Emma Lenthold, of 2404 Ridgeview, have returned to their home, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Emma Lenthold, who graduated this spring from Manual Arts High school.

Mrs. W. O. Hardman of Yosemite drive, who left Eagle Rock a short time ago, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Reed, in Moline, Kan. Mrs. Hardman will also visit Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hardman at Willard, N. M., before returning home.

VALHALLA PARK TO HAVE GATEWAY

Permit for $117,924 Issued to Construct Entrance at New Cemetery

BURBANK, July 21.—A permit totaling $117,924.52 has been taken out by the Osborn-Fitzpatrick Finance company of Los Angeles, for the erection of an immense gateway at the entrance to the Valhalla Memorial park, in this city.

According to the plans on file at the office of the building inspector, the body of the structure will be of steel and concrete, with an outside of Colorado Yule marble and art stone of grayish color.

Work on the gateway will start this week. It is estimated that it will require 140 days, or the same length of time it would require to erect a seven-story building, to put up the gateway.

The architect for the work is Kenneth McDonald, Jr., and the contractor in charge is R. H. Whinery, both well known in building circles.

Gain in Phones
According to a statement published in the Pacific Telephone magazine, the official organ for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, Burbank had 841 phones on the first day of January, 1924. On the first day of May the number had increased to 1002, or a gain of 161 phones or a percentage increase of 19.14 per cent.

MONTROSE NOTES

MONTROSE, July 21.—With an attractive list of bargains the Sam Seelig store No. 1 of the La Crescenta valley opened its doors Saturday at 626 East Honolulu avenue. This is the first store of a chain the Sam Seelig company expect to open throughout the valley. The second store, being built at the southeast corner of Los Angeles and Michigan avenue, will soon be ready to open.

The Montrose store has an attractive meat department, vegetable stand and grocery department.

The county road men's teams have been transferred from Montrose avenue to Ocean View avenue to grade and pave the strip lying between Montrose and Honolulu avenues. With the completion of this work, the Sparr Heights company will, it is understood, finish their end of the Ocean View avenue paving, which will give another straight road for motorists from Glendale up to Michigan avenue. Gravel is being hauled to complete the paving of the extreme end of Montrose avenue to Los Angeles avenue. Though this boulevard is not officially open a great amount of valley traffic has passed over it in the past few days.

The paving of Montrose avenue gives La Crescenta valley three splendid boulevards running east and west and when Ocean View is completed it will give the valley the fourth boulevard running north and south.

Mrs. A. D. Copenhagen of Detroit, Mich., has returned home after spending several months with her sister, Mrs. A. D. McRae of Sparr Heights.

Witness' Death Halts Mail Robbery Charge

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Ralph Portela has the hand of Providence to thank for not being convicted of a postoffice robbery, according to C. E. Webster, inspector who was investigating his case. For ten years Portela has been in Folsom serving a sentence meted him after he robbed the Eagle Rock State bank. He could not be paroled because of the federal indictment. But Alice E. Metcalfe, La Canada postmistress, died, and she alone could prove the charge against him in U. S. Judge J. W. James' court. Portela was released yesterday.

Dawes' Plan Basis of Economic Recovery

LONDON, July 21.—The American people regard the Dawes reparations plan as affording a sound basis for the economic recuperation of Europe, Charles Evans Hughes, secretary of state of the United States, declared today upon his arrival on the Berengaria, to attend the convention of the American Bar association. "The American government and the American people are much interested in putting the Dawes plan into effect," Hughes said.

Oil Production for Gulf States Gaining

HOUSTON, July 21.—Oil production in the Gulf Coast and South Texas fields last week averaged 118,602 barrels daily, an increase of 11,453. Twenty new wells were completed in the Gulf Coast region.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, July 21.—Mrs. G. Curtis of Mayfield avenue, who has been sick for the past week, is now convalescent.

Mrs. F. G. Stevens of Briggs Terrace is preparing to leave for a visit to Iowa.

Friends of Mrs. E. N. Nettleton are pleased to hear that the invalid is holding her own in the sudden illness which was so serious for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dwyer of West Montrose avenue left Sunday morning for a two weeks' trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. John Conlin of East Mayfield avenue is recovering from her accident which resulted in a sprained ankle.

Mrs. L. H. Anderson of Briggs Terrace entertained her cousin, Mrs. H. Lusby and little son of Glendale, over the week-end.

Little Miss Marjorie Wildhack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wildhack of Los Angeles avenue, is the guest of the Montague Glass family at their Santa Monica beach home.

Residents of La Crescenta valley are in receipt of a circular from the Southern California Edison company, requesting their co-operation with the company in saving and conserving the electric power.

The pupils of the La Crescenta Community church summer school were entertained with a picnic on Friday, held in the grounds of the Benjamin Robinson home, "Los Robles," on West Honolulu avenue. These pupils also gave a splendid program at the Sunday school on Sunday morning.

Roundabout Route to Park Picnic Grounds

SAN PEDRO, July 21.—In urging the early completion of Westinghouse avenue from the foothills to the sea with this city as its shore terminus, the Daily Pilot says municipal employees from the port attending a picnic at Griffith park were instructed as follows: "Take P. E. train to Los Angeles station, transfer to Hollywood station, take Hollywood car to Westinghouse avenue, transfer to Franklin avenue bus. Motor cars will meet bus."

How much simpler it would have been—and will be—the Pilot editor comments, if the directions had read: "Take Western avenue bus to Griffith park."

Reports New Wrinkle in Highway Robbery

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Police today were searching for a young man and young woman who have inaugurated the latest wrinkle in highway robbery. Mrs. R. H. Vesey reported to the officers that as she was walking along a street at night she noted a young couple coming toward her, "spooning." As they came close to her the man handed a pistol to the girl, who held Mrs. Vesey at bay while her male companion relieved their victim of $35.

COMMENT That's All

U. S. Athletes In Front Discussion Of Education Propose Radical Changes About 'Social Differences'

By Gil A. Cowan

Again the observer of the day's events must comment on the showing of American athletes in the Olympic games.

And again it must be noted that Californians did their share, and more, in tennis and boxing. Little more than "kids," Helen Wills and Jackie Pielke and Fidel La Barba emblazoned the Golden Bear with their wins.

The Olympic games have conclusively demonstrated that the United States is developing its youth more highly along physical lines than other countries. That is good. Hosts are to intellectual attainments reveal that mental training is being slighted? Perhaps.

Discussion of education is a moot subject and the more one learns of school systems the less sure he becomes that past or present methods are best. Indeed, America has now reached a crossroads in its educational theory which is likely to upset all precedent.

First of all, the primary system has given way to something different from the days when fathers and mothers went to school. Class work also has been greatly changed. Now comes radical departure in the grouping of older pupils, so the gradation will be about as follows:

1. Kindergarten for a year or two.
2. Primary grades for six or seven years.
3. Junior high school for two or three years.
4. Senior high school for three years.
5. Junior college for two years.
6. College or university for two to four years.
7. Post graduate work.

It is said by educators that the first three groupings are essential for all children, but that beginning with the fourth the pupil should specialize and that senior high schools should provide the curricula by which they would be fitted for either further education in a profession or the theoretical and practical knowledge of a trade.

And it is right there the "radical departure" in present-day methods is coming. Instead of teaching the mechanically-inclined the Latin a scholar should have, they will be afforded the opportunity of going into shops and learning how to operate a lathe.

For a fact we have educated too many "white collars," as office workers, teachers and others who labor little with their hands. As a result we are paying the price to those who have dared to learn a trade and the ditch-digger is more highly remunerated than the stenographer.

There is one thing necessary in this American commonwealth, the writer believes, and that is elevating the social standing of ditch-diggers, to apply the term to those who earn their living by manual labor.

For the west these "social differences" are not so noticeable as in the east, yet, nevertheless, we have them. And it is only right that philanthropists and sociologists recognize them as a problem to be met.

No reason why clubs should not be maintained for workmen and women the same as for leaders in industry. No reason why rich men's daughters should not find the company of workmen just as select as that of the lounge lizard. No reason at all, if the mental attitude of both are made ideal.

Along this line the Standard Oil company and other similar concerns are blazing the way. High school boys are hired to maintain the former's oil stations. In Fresno recently the writer noticed these youngsters were gathered together at the best hotel in the city for dinner one night each month. They were urged to aspire to higher things. They were given the opportunity of singing and speaking and generally improving themselves. On other occasions they are taken to the theatres, the swimming pools and so on—recognized as the social equal of the salesmen, the stenographers, the attorneys, the executives and the stockholders.

That is right. That is the way it should be. Nine out of every ten successful men started in life without a silver spoon. Given the opportunity they more eagerly grasped and obtained success than the favored sons.

All Have Obligations To the Community

Thousands of people have come to Glendale in the past few years. Why? Because our city offered them the advantages for which they were looking—the advantages of a wide-awake, clean, beautiful, progressive city. Most of these looked over Southern California pretty thoroughly before making their decision. When people establish a new home they want the best that is offered in the way of desirable living conditions. These people came here because the city offered them something they could not get elsewhere. And most of them are giving what they can in return—loyalty to the Community, which embraces good citizenship, interest in those things that vitally affect the city, and patronage of the Glendale stores and Glendale workers, thus using their money to help build up and maintain Glendale institutions.

A few people are thoughtless in regard to their duty to the Community in which they live. They do not stop to think that they owe something to the city besides taxes. They take what is offered in the way of advantages without considering that they are part of the Community and owe something to it.

From the very earliest days people have dwelt together in communities for mutual profit and protection and in the past every member of the community was compelled to assume certain responsibilities. Each had his work to do. Our civilization has advanced considerably since the day of the tribe; we assume today that every one is intelligent enough to recognize the truth that only by co-operation can the Community survive and grow. Stores are established for the convenience of the people, but they must have patronage and workers must have employment. If those who have money to spend do not spend it at home, then an idle, stagnating city will result, and idleness and stagnation are fatal. A growing city is always a busy city. An idle city is deteriorating and dying.

Only by every citizen recognizing and assuming his share of responsibility can Glendale realize the splendid destiny which should be ours.

ANOTHER VICTORY GAINED BY TEAM

White Sox Defeat Van Nuys
3-1 for Twenty-Fourth Straight Win

The Glendale White Sox made it twenty-four straight yesterday when they defeated Van Nuys 3 to 1 at the San Fernando ball park. Vernon Tipton was on the mound for Glendale, while Robertson hurled for Van Nuys. It was the second game between these two teams in the last three weeks, both resulting in victories for the White Sox.

The White Sox clinched the game in the first inning. Young walked and took second on Dorman's single. Shields was safe on a fielder's choice but Young was forced at third, Robertson to Wilson. Sawyer fouled out to Wilson. Shellenbach lifted one over second base, scoring Dorman. Shields going to third and Shelly taking second when an attempt was made to catch Dorman at the plate. Shields scored on a wild pitch and Shellenbach came in a few minutes later when Robertson heaved the ball into left field trying to catch him at third. Orsatt ended the inning by hitting to Bailey.

Score in Seventh
Van Nuys' only score came in the seventh inning. Phipps hit to Orsatt. Henning got life on a grounder that bounced over Sawyer's head. Bailey fouled out to Sullivan. Henning stole second and scored on Taylor's double to right. Robertson got on by error of Shields. Allenton stopped the suspense when he hit to Sawyer and was thrown out at first.

One double play in the eighth added a little excitement to a dull game. Wilson to Bailey to Henning was the route and Sawyer and Shellenbach were the victims. Van Nuys had nine left on bases, while Glendale had only three who died on the pillows. Taylor and Dorman were the only persons who gathered extra-base hits, each getting a double.

It was the first game for Tipton on the local diamond, although he has been a member of the White Sox for some time. He allowed only six hits, walked two and fanned three. Tipton was sent to the mound when Reiger was unable to appear on account of illness.

Burnside Is Named as Umpire In Coast Loop

Harry A. Williams, president of the Coast league, has decided to put William Burnside on the umpiring staff in place of Biff Schaller. Williams also announced yesterday that the $20 fine inflicted on Jim Peterson, who has been transferred to Brazil, Williams having found him to be the guilty party after an investigation.

City Tent Colony Has Grown to 1000 People

READING, Pa., July 21.—The city's tent colony near one of the municipal pumping stations now is occupied by nearly 1000 residents. The colony was started when housing became inadequate during the war. Strict sanitary regulations are enforced and a motor bus route makes travel to the business district from the camp comparatively easy.

Vacationists Arrive In California by Sea

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—One hundred and fifty young women, all unmarried and beautiful, arrived on the liner Finland from New York. The women, residents of the east, will spend their summer vacations in California. Included in the Finland's passengers was Colonel W. A. Pritchard, commanding the United States marine force at San Diego.

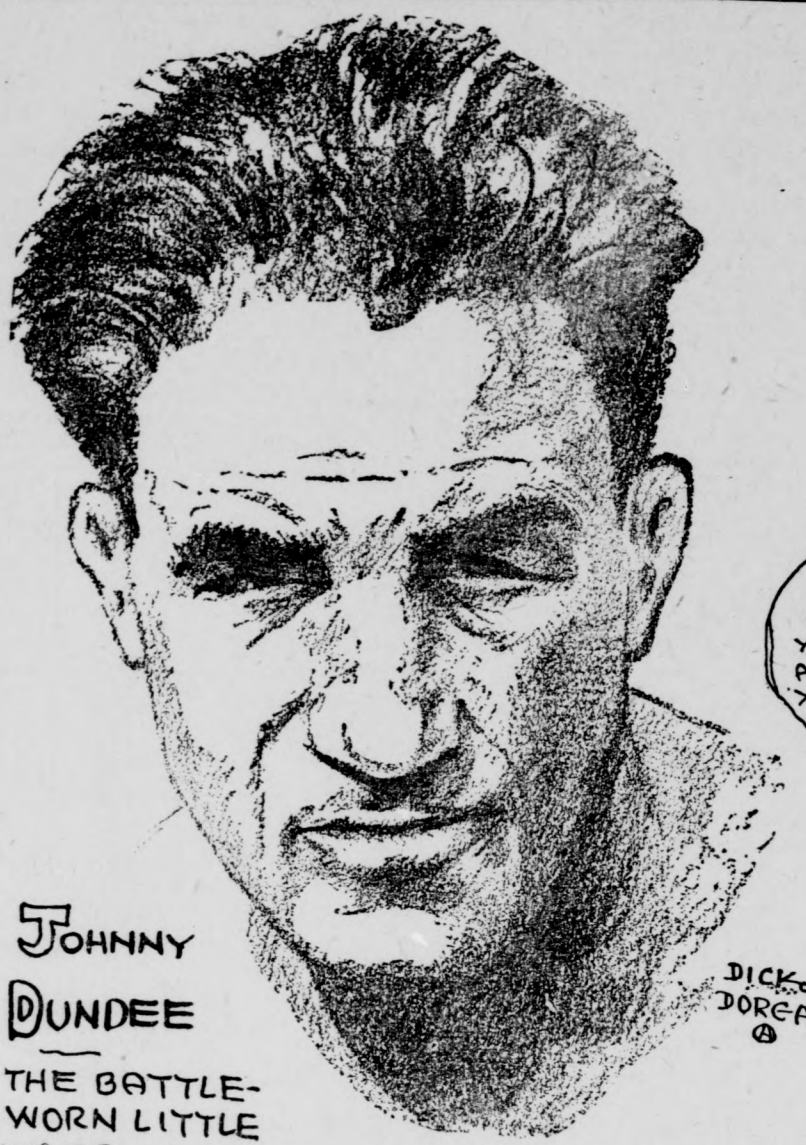

TAGGING THE BASES

The Giants had their lead cut to seven games, when the lost to the Reds while the Cubs were walloping the Braves.

Another one of those crucial series will begin today when the Tigers, the Yankees' leading pennant rivals, come to the Yankee stadium.

The Senators rallied in the ninth and won from the Browns, 5 to 4.

Camera Clicks In Ball Park; Is Used As Movie Location

The Glendale White Sox ball park on San Fernando road is breaking into the movies. The game yesterday between the Sox and Van Nuys was interrupted a little while when several shots of movie actors decorated in suits of Chicago and New York teams of other days were made. The picture is being made by the Emery Johnson production company. The park will be used all week by the camera men and actors. Members of the Glendale White Sox will participate in the big scene, when the heroine is won along with a hard-fought ball game.

HELEN WILLS AND RICHARDS CHAMPS

Win Olympic Singles Titles
In Matches at Paris,
Are Young Stars

By HARRY FLORY
For International News Service.
PARIS, July 21.—The two youngest tennis stars of America, Miss Helen Wills of California, American woman champion, and Vincent Richards, "boy wonder," of Yonkers—were still receiving the plaudits of the American colony following their feat yesterday, when they attained the highest pinnacle each has yet reached in the tennis world in winning the women's singles and men's singles in the Olympic games.

The youthful stars had failed at Wimbledon. They were forced to bow to the world's best in the British tournament, but in the Olympic games they came through with flying colors. They met the best of the other nations had to offer. The issue never was in doubt.

But outside of winning the singles championship, Miss Wills derived the most pleasure in defeating Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, playing for Norway, in a preliminary round. Mrs. Mallory prevented Miss Wills from winning the American championship two years ago.

Also Win Doubles
Miss Wills with Mrs. George Wightman as a partner also brought home the women's doubles title last week.

In winning the singles title, Miss Wills was not forced to extend herself against Miss Vlasto, the French girl. The latter committed nineteen more errors than did Miss Wills and the California girl was content to display a vastly superior service and keep the French girl on the run with forcing shots and snappy backhand and forehand returns. In only one part of the match—in the second set—did Miss Wills display a poor brand of tennis. She was wild during the first four games of the set, enabling the French girl to even the count, two-all, but that was as far as Miss Vlasto could go.

Richards had a harder time defeating Henri Cochet. The match was played in a broiling sun and required five sets.

It looks now as though that great little fighting machine, Johnny Dundee, is to follow in the footsteps of his predecessors, Crisqui and Kilbane, and hang up the armament.

After 13 years of strenuous battling, the little iron man won two championships, one of them, the featherweight title he had been after his whole career. But he acquired it just at the turning point where he started down the grade.

Last month Dundee lost his junior lightweight crown to Kid Sullivan of Brooklyn, who outpointed him nearly all the way. Before that Sammy Mandell licked him and Louis Vincentini of Chili beat him. Now they're all after him like a bunch of wolves after a fallen buffalo.

It looks very much as though this will be Johnny's last year in the battlefield as the first good healthy sock will grab his last remaining title—such are the fortunes of champions! At that, John has been fooling the boys a long time past his allotted years as a fighting man.

OAKS TAKE FINAL TWO FROM ANGELS

Visitors Climb Near Top as Mails Turns Back L. A.
With Three Hits

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Oakland won its sixth straight series when it dealt double defeat to the Angels yesterday by scores of 4-2 and 1-0. In the opener George Foster took credit for the victory while Walter Mails shut out the home team in three hits. However, he heaved Willie Hood in the first inning which kept the star home run hitter from playing further, Whaley taking his place.

Dumovich, pitching for the Angels in the first game, walked Lafayette and Brubaker, only to see them score. Then Oakland scored in the fourth and ninth, giving them a clean-cut victory. Root held the Oaks to one run in the sixth inning of the second game, but that was all they needed with Mails in the box.

At Salt Lake the Seattle club lost its first game, 10 to 6, when Wheeler Dell allowed four runs each in the third and fourth innings. But the Indians murdered the Mormons in the finale, the score 19 to 8.

The Senators and Beavers split even in yesterday's double-header at Sacramento. Portland took the opening game, 3 to 5, and the second game went to the Solons, 3 to 5.

The Seals finished their series with the Tigers just half a game ahead of the Indians. The Tigers dropped yesterday's morning game at San Francisco, 8 to 2, but won the afternoon game, 12 to 1.

In the American league, the Yankees increased their lead to a game and a half over the Tigers, when they won a doubleheader from the Indians while Detroit was idle. The Senators are two and one-half games back in third place.

Babe Ruth socked out his twenty-eighth homer in the second game with the Indians, and now leads his nearest rival, Fournier of Brooklyn, by seven homers.

PLAN LAUNCHED TO AID HUMANITY

Colloid Chemists to Found Research Institute to Find New Remedies

NEW YORK, July 21.—Plans to establish a National Institute of Research in Colloid Chemistry, for which a fund of $1,000,000 is sought, is announced here by the American Chemical Society, which, with the National Research Council, is supporting the project. The committee on colloids of the council has worked out a tentative scheme for the institute, which will be located in a university yet to be chosen.

"Success," according to the announcement, "means improvements in many industrial processes, more intelligent agricultural practice and, most important of all, the lessening of human suffering through the advances in medical science which will inevitably follow."

Research for the World War provided an example which should profit the nation in the battle against disease, it was said by Professor J. H. Mathews, of the University of Wisconsin, one of the sponsors of the undertaking.

"While war claims its sacrifice in millions of lives, disease each year claims its tens of millions," said Professor Mathews.

"Can you not bring to these problems the same methods so successfully employed in the solution of means of making war? The experience of the ages is now being drawn upon in this fight against disease, but the means are entirely inadequate, as shown by the continued ravishment of disease, as too often, in default of exact knowledge, we blindly seek remedial agencies."

"The annual drug bill of this nation is in round numbers $600,000,000, of which amount $300,000,000 is spent for so-called patent medicines. The number of medicaments is increasing at a tremendous rate, beyond all proportion to the amount of systematic research being devoted to the subject."

"Thirty years ago 2699 drug items were reported to be on the market; today more than 45,000 are said to be in use. The fatalities and suffering of humanity are being grossly exploited."

New Science Explained
During the past twenty years, according to Prof. Mathews, a new branch of science has grown to full maturity. "This science," he added, "has for certain historical reasons, become known as 'colloid chemistry.'"

"Curiously enough, colloid chemistry is largely the chemistry of familiar things—the clothes we wear, the food we eat, the houses we build, the papers and books we read; the flowers, pictures and paintings we enjoy, the structural materials for pretty nearly everything from a watchspring to an ocean liner—even our bodies are largely colloidal."

Colloid chemistry was defined by Prof. Mathews as "the chemistry of systems consisting of extremely finely divided material in a state of suspension in other material or materials."

VOTERS TO PASS ON AMENDMENTS

Fourteen Proposed Changes
To State Constitution
To Be on Ballot

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Constitutional amendments, fourteen in number and ranging from a proposal to increase the salaries of legislators to an educational poll tax, will be submitted to the voters at the November election, it was announced today by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. Among the more important proposed modifications of the statutes are the following:

Amendment providing for the levy and collection of an educational poll tax of not less than $5.

Amendment increasing the salaries of legislators to $100 for each month of their term.

Amendment providing that the salary of any city, county or state officer shall not be increased after his election or during his term of office, but allowing the legislature to provide for additional duties and permitting increase in pay for deputies.

On Soldier Vote
Amendment providing for a method by which soldiers and sailors and others away from their homes may vote on the day of an election may vote.

Amendment providing irrigation districts may acquire stock in foreign corporations for the purpose of securing control of any entire international water system, a part of which is in the United States.

Amendment providing the legislature shall determine the number of each of the inferior courts in incorporated cities or towns, and in townships, counties, or cities and counties, according to population. Also empowers legislators to determine number of judges or justices.

SELECT HEAD FOR PATTERSON POOL

P. N. Bennett Is Choice of Park Commissioners to Be Superintendent

The City Park commission met this morning at Patterson avenue park and named P. N. Bennett of 113 East Broadway as pool superintendent. Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, city health officer, was authorized to appoint a nurse at the pool. The meeting was presided over by L. H. Wilson, chairman.

The commission authorized the securing of seats to accommodate the crowds expected to attend the open air entertainments at the Patterson avenue park, beginning with the program by the Twenty-Seven Dramatic club, the night of August 8.

Protect Children
Starting tomorrow, the pool will offer the children of Glendale the protection of P. N. Bennett, pool superintendent; Frank J. Lipstreu, recently appointed guard, and the nurse to be named by Dr. Kaemmerling.

Those who attended the meeting were L. H. Wilson, chairman; Rev. C. M. Calderwood, R. E. Tucker, superintendent of recreation; Sam Warren, park superintendent; and Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, city health officer. The next meeting was announced for 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 29, at the City Hall.

CHAPTER VII

"That's exactly what you don't understand," Hilary said, sticking cubed bread into a cold oven that smelt faintly of gas, to dry. "In Europe people don't go by money—the Spauldings and the Underwoods wouldn't have it all their own way, there. He would come to us, to have Mother talk to him about Warsaw and all their friends there. And Mother would have cooked for him just as she did for us, and they would have kept dashing in to the piano to try this thing and that, as they did when Kingmann was here. You don't remember that, and he's dead now, anyway. But he and his wife stayed here three days, when they came to America, and Mother made me play for them—you were only a few months old, it was the summer after Brother died. And you don't know what that's like, Dora—what fun it is!"

The kitchen was warming now and the heating soup smelled, every instant more delicious. Hilary's face was aglow, and Dora was entirely restored to her usual radiance and happiness. When Hilary talked this way, with the confidence of the cosmopolitan, Dora felt the premonitory thrill of her great destiny in her veins. Three hundred and sixty-four days a year they were just the Colliers, living in the "German Kitchen" on soups and apples and bowls of chocolate. But there was one day more, now and then, when Kronski came, or when some other chance reminded them that their mother had been Sabine Charpentier, and their father Bronson Collier, the friend of her the musicians of Europe.

They sat down to soup, and yesterday's macaroni, and baked pears. Hilary had had early training in her mother's exquisite European thrift; meat seldom came into the Collier house, and there was rare baking of cake. Quite unconscious that she differed from the housekeepers all about her, Hilary had grown to womanhood feeling that a baked, meaty potato with butter, or a menu of graham muffins with chocolate, was a deliciously satisfying meal. All summer long their six little fruit trees supplied Dora and herself with desserts, and all winter long they were drawing upon the housewife's store of dried peaches and apples and vegetables in the cellar. They went over their accounts every month; three dollars to the butcher, seventeen to the grocer, some, then more than sixty left, when

"A Mile-a-Minute Kendall," the new play that opened last night at the tent theatre of Murphy's Comedians on Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, elicited howls of laughter from the audience, whenever they were not gasping at its thrills.

The play is a rapid-fire comedy, and shows the versatile cast, still another attractive role. J. A. Menard, manager of the Comedians, feels it is one of the best plays his company has yet presented. The curtain rises promptly at 8 o'clock each night, he states, though the tent is open at 7:15 o'clock.

The tent theatre of Murphy's Comedians on Stocker street is located between Brand boulevard and Central avenue. There is ample room for parking cars within convenient distance of the tent, Mr. Menard states.

told herself contemptuously. But the warmth of it ran deliciously, weakly, in her veins.

"Sis, how old is he?" Dora asked suddenly, when they were undressing, at half-past nine.

"About thirty, I think!" Hilary answered, unguardedly.

"Konrad Kronski! I thought he was fifty!"

"Oh—oh, I see!" Hilary was utterly confused. "Oh, he's about twenty-eight," she amended, hastily. "He was born before Mother was married; she was quite young, studying in Vienna. It was before she met Dad."

"He's young," mused Dora. "Whom did you think I meant?" she asked.

Hilary did not answer. She had washed her face and hands with warm water and soap, braided the thick, mahogany-colored hair, turned down the two beds, arranged her clothing neatly on a chair. Now she knelt down, and covered her face with her fresh, clean, soap-scented hands. Dora, impressed, followed suit; they always said their prayers together, usually locking hands affectionately before the little ceremony was done. She went to sleep wondering why Crais Spaulding had never married.

EXPRESS NO FEAR ON MAKING GOLD

World Monetary Systems In No Immediate Danger, Says Treasurer

WASHINGTON, July 21.—World monetary systems are in no present danger from the reported production of synthetic gold by a German chemist, officials at the United States treasury declared today.

Admitting that should gold be manufactured in large quantities and more cheaply than it can be mined, the American dollar, standard of world coinage value, would go the way of the German mark, treasury chemists insisted that synthetic production will cost more than the ordinary mining processes.

World Supply Large
The world gold supply is approximately $9,000,000,000. For the last two years, the production has been about 16,000,000 ounces annually, the value of $20.67 per ounce having been fixed many years in an international agreement of great powers.

The United States hold over $4,000,000,000 of the total. Treasury officials doubted that the German chemist has a formula for the practical production of gold in quantities. Hundreds of formulas have been submitted to the director of the mint, but none have been productive of results.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S UMBRELLA TENT

"Well, for goodness sake what are you going to do now?" called Nurse Jane to Uncle Wiggily one day as he was hopping out of his hollow stump bungalow. "It isn't raining and it isn't going to, and you are taking the largest umbrella."

"I know it isn't raining," answered the bunny gentleman with an extra funny twinkle of his pink nose, "but I think it will rain before the day is over. However, I'm not taking the umbrella for that reason."

"Why are you taking it, then?" asked the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"I am going to make a little tent for myself in the woods, and pretend I am camping," said Mr. Longears.

"Oh, dear me! What will you do next?" cried Nurse Jane. "Yesterday you were skipping rope for your rheumatism. Today you are making an umbrella tent—just like a child! Will you ever grow up?"

"I don't know," said Uncle Wiggily. "To tell you the truth, I don't want to. But the reason I am going to take the umbrella and make a tent in the woods, is because Dr. Possum said I should live more in the open air. It will be good for my digestion."

So saying, Uncle Wiggily tucked the big umbrella under one paw, and, taking a basket of lunch, off he hopped to the woods to make a camp. Nurse Jane sniffed once or twice and then put on her best dress and hat and went down town to price pianos in the eight and ten-cent store.

"It isn't going to rain," she said. "I'm not going to take an umbrella."

Uncle Wiggily set up his funny umbrella tent in the green wood near the babbling brook. He opened his basket of lunch, and spread it out on a flat stump beneath the umbrella.

"Now I am camping out!" laughed the bunny. "Dr. Possum was right. I feel better already."

The bunny was eating a piece of carrot bread spread with butter from the buttercups, when he heard a noise outside his tent. "I hope that isn't the Fuzzy Fox!" he whispered. But when he looked he saw only Bully and Bawly No Tail, the frog boys.

"Come into my tent and help me eat!" invited Uncle Wiggily. And you may be sure the frog boys were very glad to do this.

Bully was eating some turnip cake, and Bawly was nibbling some lettuce pie when, all of a sudden, it began to rain hard. Down pelted the big drops from the sky.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I am glad I have my umbrella tent!"

Of recent occurrence and particular enjoyment was the Flinch party at which Miss Winifred Jones entertained six Los Angeles girl friends at her home, 106 Orange street.

Officials Hold Firpo

And His Stenographer

NEW YORK, July 21.—Luis Angel Firpo, "wild bull of the Pampas," and a dark-eyed Spanish beauty, Senora Bianca Lurdez, officially known as his stenographer, were held at Ellis Island today by immigration officials on a technical charge of insufficient visas.

Firpo arrived here this morning to train for his fight with Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, in Jersey City in September.

Senora Lurdez, a woman of mystery, Firpo and others of the Firpo menage, were taken off the Pan-American liner American Legion and held at the island.

Some passengers said Senora Lurdez didn't do a bit of stenographic work on the way to New York.

Senora Lurdez' black eyes snapped and she was very flustered throughout the three hours of questioning. She said she was employed as secretary to the man who almost knocked out Jack Dempsey for the trip up and was going back to the land of palm trees as soon as her services were no longer needed.

Committee Report on Sanctions Published

LONDON, July 21.—Reports of the "sub-committee on sanctions" of the allied conference on the Dawes reparations plan, as forecast in International News Service dispatches Saturday, practically provides for the selection of an American mediator in the event of German default.

The effect of the decision is to draft into duty on the reparations commission the United States, which has had merely a "listener" sitting in with that powerful body heretofore.

La Follette to Make Whirlwind Campaign

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Brushing aside the advice of his family and closest friends, Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent presidential candidate, definitely announced today that he will make a whirlwind campaign all over the country.

La Follette thus set at rest reports that because of his advanced age he would conduct a "passive" drive, using the radio chiefly, and speaking in only a few of the larger industrial centers of the nation.

His running mate, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, of Montana, will make an equally forceful campaign. Together they plan to carry the Progressive banner from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Girls Lose All Baby Teeth Before Boys Do

NEW YORK, June 21.—Girls lose their baby teeth and cut permanent teeth before boys do, and all children show their baby teeth from the lower jaw first. This is shown by a survey by the New York association for improving the condition of the poor.

The survey indicates that a child's physical development influences the order in which it loses its baby teeth and cuts its permanent teeth. It also asserts that undeveloped children are slower to lose and cut incisors and certain of the canine molars.

OIL LEASE TRIAL SET FOR OCTOBER

Motion to Have Case Start
September 2 Overruled
By L. A. Judge

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—The Pan-American Petroleum company, headed by E. L. Denny, against which the government is prosecuting a suit to cancel oil leases granted it in the Elk Hills field, today won its first legal encounter with the government. A motion made by former Senator Atlee Pomerene, special assistant attorney general for the United States, that the case be set for trial on September 2 next was denied by Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick.

The denial was made upon the dual grounds that the date arbitrarily selected by the government counsel in chief would not permit the proper preparation of the case and the calendar in the district court here would not allow its being heard on that date.

Judge McCormick, after stating that he "saw no difference between this case and other equity cases set in this court," then set the trial date tentatively for October 20, the cause then being dependent upon the conclusion of the Mammoth Oil case in Cheyenne, Wyo., at which Senator Pomerene also is government counsel.

Previous to the setting of the case for trial, counsel for both sides indulged in lengthy oratorical arguments—the government for trial next month and the defense for adequate time in which to prepare its case.

Prepare For Bonus Rush

The war and navy departments are getting ready to handle the flood of applications for bonus claims. COL. ROBERT DAVIS (left), Adjutant General; GEN. F. T. HINES, bureau chief (below); and COL. C. A. PENNINGTON, chief of the insurance division, will have to bear the brunt of the work.

Troupe Of Trained Animals At Industrial Show Attracts Children Who Watch Tricks

Both kiddies and grown-ups visiting the industrial show in the big tent at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard, for the benefit of the Thursday Afternoon club, will find great pleasure in the troupe of trained animals that is proving such an attraction in the main tent.

These animals are not in a sideshow but are part of the free entertainment in the main tent. According to those who have seen them perform the tricks are most clever.

M'ELHANY TELLS OF TRIP ABROAD

Seventh Day Adventist Head
Sees Economic Unrest, Brighter Future

don and sailed on the Majestic from Southampton, landing in New York, July 15.

While economic unrest and unemployment were noted in the various countries Mr. McElhany states that conditions in some countries were worse than in others. The Scandinavian countries seem in good condition, he reports, but that he found the old Russian Baltic countries in a very upset state.

Visits Battlefields
During his journey he traveled one whole day on the Russian-German battlefields and says the devastation was terrible.

Mr. McElhany will be one of the presiding officers Wednesday and Thursday of this week, at the biennial session of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at Long Beach. He will probably be called upon for an account of his trip.

"Germany and all other countries are now waiting the outcome of the conference in London," says Mr. McElhany, "and unless the reparations question is settled conditions will be terrible."

"The thing that has saved the country is repudiation of the old mark, which had become hopelessly inflated, and adoption of the rentmark, based on real estate values. Silver marks are now being minted, and the foreign exchange is steady at 4.20 marks to the dollar. This simplifies the whole economic scheme of things and has improved not only the local condition in Germany, but has stabilized values all over Europe.

German Tourists
"Germany is intact. It has not suffered the war devastation of France, and, while the tremendous inflation of the mark brought great poverty to millions of people for a time, the industrialists reaped colossal profits. Italy is now full of German tourists, and the Italians do not look kindly on them."

"In the Scandinavian countries conditions are surprisingly good. Sweden particularly is in a highly prosperous condition. Their currency is stable, and they are doing a big trade. Russia is the only black spot in Europe today, a dark Asiatic shadow that causes a dozen nations to maintain armies of millions of men that are burdening the people with taxation and preventing resumption of healthy industrial conditions."

Russian Horror
"As a whole, there is a reaction against communism throughout Europe. Such stories of the Russian experiment as trickle out are full of horror. No one wants to try such an experiment again."

"While France, Italy, Germany and even England of today have radical governments, they are radical not in the way communism is radical, but rather, are progressive and mildly socialist."

"Throughout Europe, indications are that this fall there will be bumper crops. The people are optimistic, and in general it may be concluded that the effects of the war are at last wearing off. Another year or two, at the rate of progress now under way, will bring Europe back to something approaching pre-war conditions."

FIRE LOSSES IN STATE CLIMBING

Damages From Forest Fires
For Three Months More Than Plague Cost

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—With losses from California forest fires during the past three months aggregating over $5,000,000, or $1,000,000 more than the total damage caused by the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease, federal and state governments are moving toward stricter enforcement of fire laws and increase of rangers, particularly in national forests.

Following a conference with United States Forester William B. Greeley, who arrived from Washington, H. E. Braden of the state board of control, telegraphed Governor Richardson informing him of the serious situation and suggesting a meeting for the purpose of strengthening the state patrols.

United States Forester Greeley said the federal government will place 100 additional rangers in federal forests in California to cope with the acute problem.

Johannesburg, South Africa, is to have its first broadcasting station soon.

TELLS BASIS OF APOSTLE'S FAITH

Los Angeles Pastor Explains
Paul's Assurance of Faith In Christ

A large audience gathered in the auditorium of the Glendale Presbyterian church on Sunday morning to listen to a sermon by Rev. Robert N. McClean, D. D., of Los Angeles. The sermon, based on the text as found in Acts 20:24, the last clause of the verse, "But none of these things move me," was in part as follows: "Paul was on his last journey to Jerusalem. He comes to the church at Miletus. But time will not permit him to revisit his beloved people at Ephesus; so he sends messengers to ask the leaders of the church at Ephesus to come to Miletus that out of his great love for them he may send them a message. 'I go bound in the spirit,' he says, 'to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there; save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me.'"

Paul's Assurance
"Life is one of the dearest things to every one of us. Nothing so brings panic to the average man as to know his life is in jeopardy. But to Paul the one vital thing was the unfinished task as he saw it in vision. But yet, since in his heart he believed the Lord called him to go to Jerusalem, 'none of these things moved him.'"

"What had Paul seen that gave him such assurance? He had seen the Lord! No matter how involved his theology in his letters and his addresses, one sound rock was always under his feet, of one thing he was always sure; he had seen Jesus face to face, and his letters and his sermons always began at 'on the road to Damascus.' And when he spoke of the proofs of the resurrection and enumerated those who had seen him, he adds, 'Last of all, He was seen of me.'"

The Great Menace
"Someone has said, 'The great menace today is not heresy of the head but heresy of the heart.' We have a great program of education and social service, but the tragedy, if we should go on with our great program, and the 'poor have not the Gospel preached unto them,' O that would be heresy of the worst sort! We have not yet learned to sacrifice because of the great driving power that was the secret of Paul's life."

"What moves us today? Does the easy chair on prayer-meeting night? Or the auto and the shady road on the Lord's day? Do these things move us?"

"How many of you, a year ago, saw the man writing on the sky? There was once a hand that came out and wrote on the wall words of portent. But never since the morning stars sang together had a man written on the sky. Peril of every sort attended his task, but none of these things moved him—and he was writing the name of a weed!"

"We, too, can write on the sky—words that shall endure until He comes."

Glendadians Attend Electric Club Lunch

A group of representative business men from Glendale were special guests today at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles at the weekly luncheon of the Electric club, to hear a discussion of "Power Conditions," by R. H. Ballard, vice-president and general manager of the Southern California Edison company.

Invitations to the luncheon were sent to Roy L. Kent of the Rotary club; Dr. C. C. Young of the Kiwanis club; V. B. Stone, city manager of Glendale, and A. T. Cowan of The Glendale Evening News.

Virgil B. Stone of 213 East Lomita avenue, Glendale city manager, left with his family Sunday morning by automobile, on his two-week vacation recently granted by the City Council. The party is bound for Portland, Ore.

Mr. Stone will inspect the incinerator plants of several cities en route, with a view to gathering information on the best method for disposal of garbage in this city. During his absence, the position of city manager is being filled by Ray L. Morrow, Glendale city attorney.

traffic regulation system more in harmony with present-day conditions.

The proposal to compel applicants for drivers' licenses to pass a test was endorsed by A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, who also favored the plan to inaugurate a "No Accident Week," during which not only the local automobile drivers, but also all tourists entering Glendale, would become imbued with the spirit of honor and careful driving, and would strive to observe the spirit as well as the letter of the law.

"It was hoped," said Mr. Cowan, "when the commission was appointed that a solution of all traffic problems in Glendale was in sight, but the conditions that exist at present indicate that there is trouble coming. The operation of the system of enforcing the traffic laws that is in vogue at present tends to develop a disregard of law in the minds of many who would otherwise strive to obey the law in every particular."

Menace to Traffic
"The slow driver is the principal menace to traffic," said Mr. Cowan, "rather than the man who is experienced enough to take advantage of the openings in traffic."

Those present at the meeting were W. Walters, Alex Mitchell, C. D. Thom, W. F. Yeo, Henry Kuhn, Robert Adams, M. B. Towman, secretary.

Irish Industries to Be Given Protection

DUBLIN, July 21.—Ernest Blythe, Free State minister of finance, has announced in the Free State budget for the forthcoming year, a policy of protection of Irish industries will be inaugurated. Blythe is following the lines of the policy of the late Arthur Griffith, but for the purposes of the present budget, he has limited his action to the imposition of a partial system of tariffs designed to protect the least prosperous industries.

making an appointment to meet Dempsey and Mrs. Hayes later in Santa Ana, while Dempsey and his trainer's wife sped quickly to the nearby city.

There Mrs. Hayes was treated for her injuries, and the fight champion had his cuts patched up.

It was stated definitely by Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, that the champion was in no way injured in a manner that would affect his future fighting career.

His injuries, Kearns said, were only cuts and bruises, and the champion was not suffering from the shock of the crash.

Frank Pilling Able To Attend Meeting

Frank Pilling secretary of the Glendale Merchants' association, who has been confined to his home for several weeks on account of injuries received in an automobile accident, was able to appear at the meeting of the association held today noon at the Alley Inn. C. J. Hatz, president, presided at the meeting. Aside from the usual routine business of the association, there was nothing brought up.

OPEN OFFICE TO SELL LOTS HERE

Cole & Mathewson Will Act
As Agents for Rossmoyne
Sub-Division

The possibilities of Glendale subdivision property have been the lure that has attracted A. W. Cole and J. W. Mathewson to leave Hollywood and to open an office in this city, to handle the lots in Rossmoyne, the Haddock-Nibley company, northeast of Glendale.

Mr. Cole has been, up till recently, manager of the Hollywood Syndicate, a firm that has been instrumental in putting on a number of important subdivisions in the Hollywood district. The firm has established an office at 621 North Glendale avenue, where they will act as selling agents for Haddock-Nibley company, and associated with them will be H. B. Cooper, who has had long experience in selling Southern California real estate.

The decision to establish themselves in Glendale and to sell Glendale property was reached after a careful investigation of real estate values and prospects in many of the leading cities of the Southland, as they convinced themselves that Glendale has more to offer than any other city they visited.

The sales force will be rapidly augmented, and within a short time the members of the firm and Mr. Cooper plan to bring their families to Glendale as permanent residents.

JUNIOR OLYMPIAD BEGINS TOMORROW

Track and Field Events to Feature Opening Days;
Marathon Planned

Glendale will have a junior Olympiad, starting tomorrow afternoon at the Pacific Avenue school playground, and finishing with a modified marathon on August 5, according to an announcement made today by Joseph Van Rensselaer, playground director.

Events tomorrow, starting at 2:30 o'clock, will be dashes for the following distances: 50-yard, 75-yard, 100-yard, 120-yard and 220-yard. Field events will be held on Wednesday and Friday.

On Monday, July 28, an obstacle race will be staged. Croquet tournaments will be held on the following days, with a golf tournament on Thursday and Friday of next week. The modified marathon on Monday, August 5, will bring the events to a close.

Members of the committee in charge of the Olympiad are: Don Harris, president; Bud Sawyer, treasurer; James Keogh, Wayne Brewer, Warren Rogers, Wayne Harden and David Wilson. The games will be under the auspices of the Community Service.

Legion Posts Receive Compensation Blanks

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—All of the 300 American Legion posts in California have received a supply of the adjusted compensation blanks from the war department, according to James K. Fisk, department adjutant of the Legion, in this city.

All former service men are advised to call upon the post adjutant in the city nearest his residence for an application blank.

In the larger cities, county councils of the American Legion are doing the clerical work in cooperation with a number of the larger newspapers.

It is estimated by Fisk that the blanks will be handled very quickly by scattering this burden of service throughout the different posts which method is saving the war department and other departments interested in the bonus, thousands of dollars. There were 152,000 men who entered the service from California.
